

To Orange class

It's May now. We are getting closer to summer and I can feel it in the air! I hope you have managed to spend some time outside on the sunny and warm days.

Over the weekend I dyed my hair using henna, which is a natural way to dye your hair so it's better for your hair and for the environment. It was very stinky though and I had to leave it on my hair for 4 hours! You can see in the picture it is all wrapped up in cling film, it was very heavy and hard to keep my head up! Now my hair is a bit more auburn coloured, which is like a dark orange.

Over the last few weeks I have done a few puzzles. The 3D Big Ben puzzle only took a few hours but the gold one took weeks because it was so hard, every piece looked the same! I am currently working on a 1000 piece puzzle!

I hope you are finding new ways to have fun. It was nice to receive emails last week from some of you. I got to hear about the caterpillars that Lola has that will be butterflies soon, and read a lovely letter that Milly wrote for me. Next week I will be phoning your parents to see how you are doing and hope to speak to you all too which I am very excited about!

Lots of love,
